✠Call to Worship: (Congregation reads bold print)

Holy God, put a fire in our bones,

So our words are alive with hope,

Our hearts aflame with love,

Our deeds ablaze with compassion.

Holy God, spare us the winds of destruction,

But set loose your Spirit that carries us along the paths of justice.

Holy God,

Be fire in our bones, wind at our back, a dove of peace.

Be a Spirit of love, a song reborn, a life renewed.

📖Hymn: "I Sing the Almighty Power of God" UMH 152

✠Opening Prayer

Living God, your Spirit flamed in your church at its founding; spark among us today. Even as the bush that Moses gazed upon burned and was not consumed, burn in our hearts. Make us your fuel. Use us for your work. Unite us in the bonds of community, that we may be the church today for others, and not only for ourselves. May the fellowship we know in you inspire us to be as faithful as the saints of the early church. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Please pray for: Faith UMC, Jimmy Moore, Family of Bob Dudley, Loni Revercomb, Don Miller, Cindy Morehead, Jordan Lang, Jared Lang, Bonita Klinehoffer, John & Kim Cain, Daniel Ghrist, Janice Moore family, Shellie Siefert, Sherry Brooks, Jim Porter, Dianna Slifko, Kay Baker, Melissa Wood, Joesy Moore, Ben Welker, Carole Sayre, Debbie Paul, Doug Adams, Alice Goynes, Norma Coyle, Jeannine Cady, Pam Thomas, Henrietta Hurst, Logan Wolford, Joyce Stimpert, Art Herron, Todd Sands, Erin Watts, the homeless, abused, sick, imprisoned, those who have not yet accepted Christ and those who only minimally follow the teachings of Christ.

Pastor Appreciation Month

October is pastor appreciation month. Let's show Pastor Joy how much we appreciate her the month of October. If you would like to give Pastor Joy a card, gift card, note of appreciation, etc., there will be a box for them on the Welcome Center or feel free to mail them to the church. Here are five suggestions from Lovett Weems' article, "Showing Appreciation for Your Pastor" from his Leading Ideas newsletter:

- 1. Pray for them. Prayer helps you and your clergy leaders understand your partnership in ministry and your mutual dependence on God.
- 2. Respect them. It is crucial that you do not talk to them in ways you would not want or permit them to talk to you. Clergy can handle questions and criticism. They need them. But it is essential that you not add a layer of hostile attitude or attribution of motives to your conversation.
- 3. Respect boundaries. It is easy for a pastor's life to become 24/7 — with all members feeling their situation, meeting, or question is the exception to respecting the pastor's personal time. It is the pastor's family and the pastor's well-being that often suffer the most from such blurred time boundaries.
- 4. Be positive. Practice reframing both your concerns and those of others into opportunities to advance God's work through your congregation. Ask about things other than Sunday School room assignments. Pastors enter ministry because of their desire to help others know God through Christ and to grow as disciples. They invest years in study and then hours each week in preparing to preach and teach. They would gladly welcome thoughtful inquiries about the substance of their messages.
- 5. Support the mission of the congregation. Good pastors most want their congregations to take the next faithful step that God has for them. No amount of personal affirmation can match the example of dedicated laity who are serving that vision.

Thank You...

Thank you to all our friends who sent cards and well wishes for our 50th Wedding Anniversary. We wondered why we weren't receiving any cards in the mail.
